Introductions

Old Business:

S-28 memorial cleaning and landscaping projects. Frank Blackmon says that he has a company that does concrete engraving and staining that might be useful.

The group voted to alternate meetings between the 3rd Thursday one month and the 3rd Saturday the next month to cut down on the number of meetings.

Mike Ryan said he was unable to find any restaurants with meeting rooms available, and the K&W was serving the group fine.

New Business:

Set the next meeting for Saturday December 18th, 2010 at the K&W Cafeteria for brunch.

There is a motion from the other bases in the state to move the District meeting that Coastal Carolina Base hosts from the 3rd quarter (in October) to the second quarter to coincide with the Azalea Parade. This will mean less travelling for the subvets in the state. The group elected to move the district meeting.

Butterbean informed the group about the USSVI national website and the one that the NC state subvets maintain. Pictures of the Tarheel floats are in there.

Vests are available from the storekeeper for $45. You need to provide 2 sizes, chest and from collar to waist. Mrs. Jensen is making them for most of the NC bases. You still need to order a base rocker to put on.

Finally, dues are due, it is getting close to the end of the year.
